The Time Traveler is a collection that invokes a deep desire for escapism, offering an invitation to be transported to a fantasy-like plane. As conflicts rage through-out the globe, demographics lean into imagination with greater fervor out of necessity to hear triumphant messages of good prevailing over evil, even in dark times. Through deep blacks and biolumenecent blues, these colors depict the roaring chaos at sea likened to daily life in the 21st century. With juxtapositions of the Victorian Steam Punk style era, suiting pin stripes, chains, ostrich feathers, and lace convey a story of rebellion in challenge of the status quo and remeniscent bougeoisie style dress. Though historically conceptual, this collection remains grounded in present day fashion relevance by adhering to relevant sihloettes, placement noveltry fabrications, and ready-to-wear styling curation.
